Walmart is close to an All Time High! $WMT

November 27, 2026

Scott McGregor examines Walmart ($WMT), highlighting its strong recovery and relative strength as it approaches its all-time high set in May of this year. Speaker Scott McGregor notes that after suffering a sharp pullback beneath all of its key moving averages—including its long-term 200-day moving average—$WMT has rebounded back to "the scene of the crime" just beneath $134.00, breaking out of a recent flag pattern and maintaining an uptrend despite broader volatility in the S&P 500. Heading into next week, Scott McGregor advises keeping Walmart ($WMT) on close watch for continued strength and a decisive move through and above the $134.00 resistance level.

Next Steps:

1. Monitor the $134.00 All-Time High Pivot: Watch Walmart ($WMT) heading into next week for a decisive push through and above the $134.00 level.
2. Track Uptrend & Flag Breakout Follow-Through: Keep $WMT on your primary watchlist as it builds on its recent flag-pattern breakout and maintains relative strength against a choppy S&P 500.

[0:00] Hey everyone, good evening. It's Scott

[0:02] at scottrades on x with

[0:04] stockmarketmentor.com

[0:06] and my chart of the day. Want to take a

[0:09] look at Walmart. This is ticker WT. Now

[0:12] Walmart is back near its all-time high.

[0:15] It hit an all-time high in May of this

[0:18] year. It had a pretty ugly pullback

[0:21] under all the key moving averages,

[0:23] including its long-term 200 day moving

[0:26] average, but it's recovered and now

[0:28] we're back at the scene of the crime

[0:30] just under $134. And so, I would

[0:34] certainly watch Walmart for some

[0:36] continued strength. You can see how

[0:38] recently it broke out of this flag

[0:42] pattern, showed a lot of strength on the

[0:45] market rebound and has held up in an

[0:48] uptrend despite the mess of the S&P 500.

[0:53] And so Walmart is certainly something to [0:56] watch into next week. I think you want

[0:58] to look for a move through and above

[1:00] $134

[1:02] on Walmart. So, that's just one of many

[1:05] things we're looking at tonight and this

[1:06] weekend at stockmarketmentor.com.

[1:10] I hope that was helpful. My name is

[1:11] Scott McGregor at Scottrades on x. I'll

[1:14] see you next time.
